Demand for PhD in computer science hit by lack of scholarships

New Delhi : Attracting quality students to pursue doctoral degree in computer science is one of the major challenges faced by India's top technical institutes due to lack of lucrative scholarships and fellowships, according to a survey.

The survey, conducted by Prof Pankaj Jalote, Director of the Indraprastha Institute of Information Technology \(Delhi\), says PhD production in India in the field of computer science has been "an issue of concern over the last many years." Read more
